5. Evaluate how the APFO and APFS supports, enhances, or conflicts with recent general zoning ordinance changes;
6. Submit a report with recommendations to the Planning Commission including its suggested changes, if any, to the APFO and APFS.

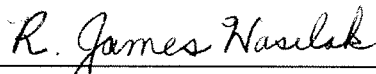

The membership of the Advisory Committee shall:

1. Be composed of no more than nine individuals who represent a cross-section of the governmental, business, and resident interests in the City;
2. Be selected and appointed at the discretion of the Commission, through an open public application procedure;
